

You are the Potter, I am the Clay

God has been putting His fingerprints on our hearts from a little child in many ways. We will trace our joys, fears, rejoicings and tears to a sound track that God has provided to enhance our personal story line. Come and see the journey of your life through the songs that have inspired it. Learn about how the music has made a sacred space in your heart for so many precious things.

Jana Pivacek-Cole: is an Ohioan by birth, grew up and was educated in the Midwest, receiving Masters Degrees in Vocal Performance and Psychology from Ball State University and Oberlin College prior to moving to NYC in 1975. She continued her education through Columbia University in Vocal Physiology and Psychology until she moved to CT with her husband in 1991. She has been an International Voice and Acting Teacher and performer for 40 years, while parrelling her life with Ministries of healing, care of the elderly, and Pastoral Counseling. The past five years Jana has received 80 hours of accreditations from the Pastoral Counseling Courses at St. Francis Hospital in Hartford, and most recently graduated from the Spiritual Direction Internship through the Spiritual Live Center in Bloomfield, CT. God's delicate weaving of the generations and interdenominational connectivities have been a blessing that is the core of all of Jana's work.
